PARTE 1. TEMA I. OVERCOME

1. Introducción

En este tema vamos a estudiar un nuevo tiempo verbal: El Present Perfect. Veremos cómo se construye en sus formas afirmativa, negativa e interrogativa, así como las expresiones temporales que suelen acompañarlo.

A continuación leeremos un texto sobre los miedos y fobias más comunes y aprenderemos vocabulario para hablar sobre estos temas.

2. Present Perfect

FORMA

AFIRMATIVA	NEGATIVA
I have played (I've played)	I haven't played
You have played (You've played)	You haven't played
He/She/It has played (He/She/It's played)	He/She/It hasn't played
We have played (We've played)	We haven't played
You have played (You've played)	You haven't played
They have played (They've played)	They haven't played

Equivale al pretérito perfecto simple en castellano (He comido/bebido /ido; Han estudiado/viajado/ limpiado.....

- Se forma con have / has + un verbo en participio (acabado en -ed si es regular; si es irregular hay que consultar la lista de verbos irregulares al final del tema).

He has cleaned the car. (Él ha lavado el coche)

They have finished eating. (Ellos han terminado de comer)

She has bought a new jacket. (Se ha comprado una chaqueta nueva)

He's found a new job. (Ha encontrado un nuevo trabajo)

- En negativa se añade el adverbio not o la contracción n't a have / has (haven't / hasn't).

He hasn't done the washing-up. (Él no ha lavado los platos)

I haven't read his new book. (No he leído su nuevo libro)

We haven't replied to their email yet. (Todavía no hemos respondido a su correo)

USO

El Present Perfect se usa para hablar de:

- Acciones que empezaron en el pasado y aún continúan. Suele llevar for o since y se traduce en presente.

She has worked here since 1999. (Trabaja aquí desde 1999)

I've lived here for 20 years. (Vivo aquí desde hace 20 años)

- Acciones pasadas que afectan al presente o tienen consecuencias en el momento actual.

I have already finished. I'm bored now. (Ya he terminado. Ahora estoy aburrida)

He has cleaned the car. (Él ha lavado el coche)

- Acciones pasadas sin especificar cuándo ocurrieron.

They've talked to the reporter. (Han hablado con el periodista)

- Acciones muy recientes. Lleva just y se traduce por acabar de + infinitivo.

The train has just left the station. (El tren acaba de dejar la estación)

They've just got married. (Se acaban de casar)

I've just spoken to him. (Acabo de hablar con él)

EXPRESIONES DE TIEMPO Y ADVERBIOS

Con el Present Perfect se suelen usar las siguientes expresiones temporales y adverbios:

ever	interrogativa: "alguna vez"	Have you ever travelled abroad?
	negativa: "nunca", "jamás"	I haven't ever watched that film. never	afirmativa: "nunca"	She has never called me. always	"siempre"	You've always been her friend. already	afirmativa: "ya"	We've already finished the exam. just	afirmativa: "acabar de"	They've just arrived here.
yet	negativa: "todavía", "aún"	He hasn't found his glasses yet.
	interrogativa: "ya"	Have you bought any fruit yet?
for	"durante" o no se traduce	My brother has lived in Manchester for five years. since	"desde"	I haven't heard from him since 2002. recently	"recientemente"	I haven't seen them recently.
lately	"últimamente"	Jim hasn't been to the gym lately.

Hay que tener en cuenta que just, always, already, ever y never se ponen entre have y el participio del verbo principal. Yet se coloca al final de la frase, for va seguida de un periodo de tiempo porque indica la duración y since va delante del momento en que empezó esta. Recently y lately pueden ir al principio o al final de la frase, pero se suelen poner al final.

FORMA INTERROGATIVA

Have I played?
Have you finished your homework?
Has he/she/it drunk the milk?
Have we paid the bill?
Have you worked here before?
Have they watched the film?

En interrogativa se pone have / has + el sujeto + un verbo en participio.

En las respuestas breves se pone el pronombre personal sujeto + have / has o haven't / hasn't.

Has he done the homework? Yes, he has. / No, he hasn't.

(¿Ha hecho él los deberes? Sí. / No.)

Have you finished the exercise? Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

(¿Has terminado el ejercicio? Sí. / No.)

Si la pregunta tiene un interrogativo, se pone este primero, antes de have / has.

Where have you gone on holiday?

(¿Dónde has ido de vacaciones?)

How long...? se utiliza para preguntar cuánto tiempo ha pasado desde que la acción, que aún continúa, empezó.

How long have you worked there? (¿Cuánto tiempo llevas trabajando allí?)

ACTIVIDADES

1. Complete the dialogues with just, already, or yet.

Example: Juan I've already seen this film. I saw it at the cinema.

Jill Don't tell me what happens! I haven't seen it yet!

1 Sara I've ¹ _____ made some biscuits. Would you like one?

Mo No, thanks. I'm not hungry. I've ² _____ had lots to eat today.

2 Anna haven't emailed Tadeen ³ _____. What about you?

Nils I've ⁴ _____ sent him six emails!

3 Dave Have you finished that report ⁵ _____?

Leah I've ⁶ _____ typed the last page. I finished it a few minutes ago!

2. Complete the sentences with for or since.

Example: Philip and Lydia have been married for eight years.

- 1 We've known each other _____ we were children.
- 2 Ethan's been a teacher _____ 1997.
- 3 The animals haven't eaten _____ three days.
- 4 Sam's been in Paris _____ Wednesday.
- 5 Mrs Jones has owned that house _____ a long time.

3. Use the words to write positive (+) and negative (-) sentences and questions (?) with the present perfect.

Example: Courtney / act / in two Hollywood films (+)
Courtney has acted in two Hollywood films.

- 1 Sebastien / fall / in love again (+)

- 2 anyone / find / my notebook (?)

- 3 your parents / be / to Egypt before (?)

- 4 Stefan / hear / Eva sing before (-)

- 5 They / see / this film four times (+)

- 6 you / ever / eat / Brazilian food (?)

- 7 I / download / any new apps recently (-)

3. Fears and phobias

1 READING

- a Look at all the photos in this lesson. Are you afraid of any of these things?
- b Read some information from fearof.net, a website about phobias. Complete each phobia with the correct heading from the list.

Fear of butterflies Fear of crowds
Fear of doctors Fear of driving Fear of heights

Some people with this phobia find it difficult to pass the test. Others are anxious on motorways or certain roads. In extreme cases, people are afraid of being a passenger in a vehicle.

Comment

People say that actress Nicole Kidman suffers from this phobia. It is closely linked to a general fear of insects. People with this phobia are afraid of most insects with wings, and they feel nauseous or they panic if they see them. Comment

This phobia is quite common in young children, but adults suffer from it, too. Many are especially afraid of having vaccinations or blood tests. Comment

This fear affects nearly one in every 20 adults. People with this phobia usually avoid tall buildings, skiing, or standing on balconies. Comment

This phobia affects many people, but women more than men. These people feel very anxious or scared if they are in a noisy place where there are a lot of people, for example a shopping mall or a sports stadium. They often avoid these kinds of places. Comment

Adapted from a website

c Now read some comments posted on the website.
Match comments A–E to fears 1–5.

- A  I am so scared that I haven't been to see one for more than 15 years. I hate thinking about them! I feel the same way about dentists, too. Carl
- B  I have a fear of going over bridges, and on motorways at over 60 mph. I'm OK at 45 mph. I once went over a bridge and I had to stop in the middle – I was really frightened. I haven't driven that way since then, and that was seven years ago. Becky
- C  I thought I was the only person that had this fear! I'm OK with the small ones, but I'm terrified of the big ones. I'm OK if they aren't close to me, but as soon as they start flying near me I run away. I like looking at pictures of them because they can be beautiful, but if they fly towards me, especially towards my face, I panic. Mina
- D  I suffer from this phobia, and what works best for me, if I know that I'm going to be in a situation where there'll be a lot of people, is to arrive early. Then other people arrive little by little, and that helps me. The worst thing is walking into a place that is already full of people. Simon
- E  I've had this phobia for about 20 years. It started when I was a child, about six I think. I had a bad dream where I was in a block of flats high up on a hill and I nearly fell out of the window. I woke up and started crying. I haven't been to any really high places since then. Even if I imagine I'm in a high place, I feel dizzy. Keith d Look at the highlighted words in the phobias and comments and match them to the definitions.

- 1 the noun made from the adjective afraid _____
- 2 one adjective which means very afraid _____
- 3 two synonyms for afraid _____, _____
- 4 an adjective for the feeling that everything is going round in circles _____
- 5 to suddenly feel afraid and not be able to think _____
- 6 to be badly affected by something _____

e Do you have or does anyone you know have a phobia? When and how did it start? How does it affect your or their life?

My brother is really scared of flying. He gets very nervous before he flies somewhere. It started about ten years ago when...

ACTIVIDADES

Complete the sentences with the words.

heights fear ~~afraid~~ suffers phobia panic frightened

Example: I haven't swum in the sea for years. I'm afraid of water.

- 1 Jenny never travels by plane. She has a _____ about flying.
- 2 I saw the spider and started to _____. My heart was beating very fast.
- 3 I can't climb trees. I'm scared of _____.
- 4 As a doctor, I regularly talk to people who are _____ of me.
- 5 Liban doesn't like the lifts at work. He _____ from a phobia of small spaces.

PARTE 2. Tema II

ROOTS

1. Introducción

En este tema vamos a continuar estudiando los tiempos verbales del inglés. Continuando con el tiempo verbal del tema anterior, ahora nos toca profundizar en el uso del Present Perfect, especialmente, en el contraste entre este tiempo y el Past Simple.

Después veremos un texto sobre costumbres y tradiciones en diferentes países y el choque cultural (culture shock) que podemos experimentar al viajar.

2. Present Perfect / Past Simple

Para poder usar correctamente ambos tiempos verbales, es necesario tener claro cómo se construye cada uno de ellos, tanto forma afirmativa como negativa o interrogativa. Si tienes alguna duda, puedes mirar en los temas anteriores.

A modo de repaso rápido, te recuerdo que el Past Simple se construye poniendo la forma del pasado del verbo junto al sujeto:

Mary worked yesterday. (Mary trabajó ayer)

The children played in the park. (Los niños jugaron /jugaban en el parque)

Como puedes ver, el pasado de los verbos regulares (work, play) se forma añadiendo -ed.

We left home early in the morning. (Dejamos la casa por la mañana temprano)

They bought some clothes last weekend. (Ellos compraron algo de ropa el fin de semana)

En estos casos tenemos que usar left como pasado de leave, o bought como pasado de buy por tratarse de verbos irregulares. En el tema anterior tienes un listado de verbos irregulares con sus formas de pasado.(2º columna)

Sin embargo, la irregularidad de los verbos no afecta a las formas negativa e interrogativa. En estas oraciones tenemos que recurrir al auxiliar del pasado (did):

Mary didn't work yesterday.

Did Mary work yesterday?*

The children didn't play in the park.

Did the children play in the park?*

We didn't leave home early in the morning.

Did you leave home early in the morning?*

They didn't buy any clothes last weekend.

Did they buy any clothes last weekend?*

En el tema anterior vimos que el Present Perfect se construye con have / has + participio de pasado:

They have already seen that film. (Ellos ya han visto esa película)

I haven't washed the dishes yet. (Todavía no he lavado los platos)

A continuación vamos a ver la diferencia entre ambos tiempos verbales.

¿Cuál es la diferencia? Present Perfect / Past Simple

Present Perfect	Past Simple
Acciones inacabadas que empezaron en el pasado y continúan en el presente: I've known Julie for ten years (and I still know her). (Conozco a Julie desde hace diez años)	Acciones acabadas: I knew Julie for ten years (but then she moved away and we lost touch). (Conocí a Julie durante diez años)
Una acción acabada en la vida de alguien (cuando la persona todavía está viva: una experiencia): My brother has been to Mexico three times. (Mi hermano ha ido tres veces a Mexico)	Una acción acabada en la vida de alguien (cuando la persona ha fallecido): My great-grandmother went to Mexico three times. (Mi bisabuela fue tres veces a Mexico)
Una acción acabada con un resultado en el presente: I've lost my keys! (The result is that I can't get into my house now). (He perdido mis llaves)	Una acción acabada sin resultado en el presente: I lost my keys yesterday. It was terrible! (Now there is no result. I got new keys yesterday). (Perdí mis llaves ayer)
Con una unidad de tiempo inacabada (this week, this month, today): I've seen John this week. (He visto a John esta semana)	Con una unidad de tiempo acabada (last week, last month, yesterday): I saw John last week. (Vi a John la semana pasada)

Remember:

1. Usamos el pasado simple para acciones o acontecimientos pasados que no tienen conexión con el presente
2. Usamos el presente perfecto para acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y están sucediendo todavía ahora or para acciones terminadas en el pasado que tienen una conexión con el presente.
3. No Podemos usar el presente perfecto con expresiones de tiempo que indiquen un periodo de tiempo finalizado en el pasado.

NOT: I've been to the museum yesterday.

Además, como vimos en el tema anterior, el Present Perfect suele ir acompañado de expresiones de tiempo como yet, already, just, ever, never, lately, since...

Hay que tener en cuenta que podemos usar for tanto con un tiempo verbal como con el otro. Con Present Perfect indica que la acción es inacabada:

Jack has been married for ten years. (Jack lleva casado diez años)

Sin embargo, con Past Simple la acción ya está terminada:

Jack was married for ten years. (Jack estuvo casado diez años)

THINGS I DIDN'T KNOW UNTIL I GOT HERE

What was a surprise for you when you came to live in America?

LENA FROM UKRAINE

When I eat out with my husband or friends, we usually share, because food portions are huge and we don't want all that food. But you can take home everything you don't eat, and I like that.

In the winter, you often see people in the street or on the subway who are wearing just a T-shirt when it's really cold outside.

RAHIM FROM PAKISTAN

When people speak to their boss (and to their teachers) they call them by their first name. They do the same to old people too, even when they don't know them well. It doesn't seem polite to me.

NATASHA FROM BELARUS

The American President's salary is about the same as a doctor's. He isn't the richest person in the country. That surprised me!

Some hospitals are like smart hotels – but a lot of people can't go there because they don't have medical insurance. Also, doctors don't always explain everything to their patients in my country. Here, they tell you everything.

TARA FROM INDIA

I couldn't believe the tipping system, for example, in places like the hairdresser's. You cut my hair and I pay you – a lot! Why do I need to give you a tip as well?

Public transport can be dangerous in India. But I was on the subway here in New York, going home late at night, when a group of people got on. They were very loud – I think they were drunk – and we were quite frightened. But at the next stop two police officers got on. The people stopped shouting when they saw the police. I felt really safe.

JULIE FROM CANADA

My husband is from Ecuador, and when he first arrived, he was really surprised by his salary. As a chef, he could earn enough money to pay bills, buy food, pay rent, have a good social life, and buy luxuries like our Xbox. In Quito, he worked 15 hours a day, and more at the weekend, and he earned half the money.

Licencia: desconocida

Look at the picture above. As you can see, there's a group of people gathered around a table. By their looks, we can see that they are not members of a family. It's not a business meeting either.

What do you think they all have in common? Actually, it's a very simple thing: everyone speaks English as a mother language, but only one of them was born in England. This is just an example of people who speak English as a mother language outside of England.

However, in the world there are many countries where English is spoken as an official language.

If you want to know more about these countries click on: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_countries_where_English_is_an_official_language

1. Grammar

1.1 Relative pronouns

Los pronombres de relativo unen dos oraciones que tienen un elemento en común, es decir, se repite el mismo sustantivo (bien repitiendo la misma palabra o a través de un pronombre). Los pronombres de relativo sustituyen a este sustantivo que se repite, unen las dos oraciones tomando como elemento común dicho sustantivo y ocupan el lugar del punto. Mira atentamente los ejemplos y lo verás:

Ejemplo 1

“I know a man. He speaks five languages” = dos oraciones

“I know a man who speaks five languages” = 1 oración (who sustituye a “he”)

Ejemplo 2

“Lisa is wearing a dress. It is very beautiful” = dos oraciones

“Lisa is wearing a dress that is very beautiful” = 1 oración (that sustituye a “it”) “Lisa is wearing a dress which is very beautiful” = 1 oración (which sustituye a “it”)

Ejemplo 3

“I saw a boy. His hair is red” = dos oraciones

“I saw a boy whose hair is red” = 1 oración (whose sustituye a “Her”)

Los pronombres de relativo que vamos a ver son:

Pronombre Relativo	Uso	Ejemplos
Who	Sólo para personas	A singer is a person who sings I know somebody who knows you Do you know anybody who speaks German? The people who work here are very nice
That	Para cosas y personas	A DVD is a machine that plays film She is the woman that knows you
Which	Sólo para cosas	Helen has a car which is very old I like films which are funny

OJO: Fíjate que los pronombres de relativo sustituyen a las palabras que van subrayadas para no tener que repetirlas ¿Dónde van colocadas esas palabras? Exactamente, justo delante de ellos.

Pronombre Relativo	Uso	Ejemplos
Whose	Indica posesión	I know a man WHOSE wife is a famous doctor I saw a woman WHOSE dog is dangerous

OJO: En este caso el pronombre de relativo “whose” cumple una doble función:

- por una parte, se relaciona con el sustantivo que va delante (poseedor)
- por otra, acompaña al sustantivo que va detrás

1.2 Possessive pronouns

Como su nombre indica, los posesivos se usan cuando queremos indicar posesión (algo es de alguien). Antes de ver los pronombres, vamos a repasar los adjetivos posesivos y poner todo este tema en contexto.

Personal pronouns: subject pronouns	Possessive adjectives	Example
I	My	My car is red
You	Your	Your house is big
He	His	His umbrella is blue
She	Her	Her mother is a teacher
It	Its	Its food is delicious
We	Our	Our teacher is nice
You	Your	Your sister is my friend
They	Their	Their dog is brown

Los adjetivos posesivos son aquellos adjetivos que completan el significado del nombre al que se refieren indicando posesión (que algo pertenece a alguien):

This is my car - Este es mi coche

That is our friend - Aquella es nuestra amiga.

Por supuesto, los adjetivos posesivos al completar el significado de un nombre deben ir siempre acompañándolo. En inglés, los adjetivos posesivos siempre irán delante del nombre al que acompañan:

My hands - Mis manos.

His father - Su padre.

Her car - Su coche.

Your turn - Tu turno.

Our house - Nuestra casa.

Their cat - Su gato.

A diferencia de nuestro idioma, los adjetivos posesivos en inglés hacen referencia al poseedor y no a la cosa poseída. Es por eso que tanto his, her como their se traducen como “su”. Así que tenemos que tener en cuenta que:

HIS = “su de él”

HER = “su de ella”

THEIR = “su de ellos/as”

y suelen usarse con mucha frecuencia para hablar de partes del cuerpo, prendas de vestir y objetos personales:

She has got a small scar on her face. - Tiene una pequeña cicatriz en la cara.

He always has his hands in his pockets. - Siempre está con las manos en los bolsillos.

How often do you clean your teeth? -¿Con qué frecuencia te limpias los dientes?

¡OJO! No confundas el adjetivo posesivo its (su/sus de cosa o animal) con la forma contraída it's (it is) del verbo to be:

Oxford is famous for its university. - I like Oxford. It's a nice city.

(Oxford es famosa por su Universidad) - Me gusta Oxford. Es una ciudad agradable.

He has got new shoes. These are _____ shoes.

The dog has got a bone. That is _____ bone.

We have got two children. Those are _____ children.

You have got a pencil. This is _____ pencil.

She has got a red skirt. That is _____ skirt.

Peter and Tim have got a computer. This is _____ computer.

Actividad nº 4. Translate the sentences of the previous activity

Ya ha llegado el momento de centrarnos en los pronombres posesivos. Al ser pronombres ya no van a acompañar al sustantivo, si no que van a sustituirlo. Por ejemplo:

El coche es mío. (mío no va delante del sustantivo coche, se refiere a él--> pronombre)

Mi coche (mi va delante del sustantivo coche --> adjetivo)

Personal pronouns: subject pronouns	Possessive adjective	Possessive pronouns
--	---------------------------------	--------------------------------	--

			Examples
I	My	Mine	The bag is mine
You	Your	Yours	That cat is yours
He	His	His	This car is his
She	Her	Hers	The horse is hers
It	Its	Its	The leg is its
We	Our	Ours	That book is ours
You	Your	Yours	My house is yours
They	Their	Theirs	This hat is theirs

Recordad que en inglés importa más quién es el poseedor, es en lo que nos tenemos que fijar a la hora de elegir el posesivo:

This car is his = este coche es suyo (el poseedor es un hombre)

The horse is hers = este caballo es suyo (la poseedora es una mujer)

The leg is its = la pata es suya (por ejemplo de una mesa, que es una cosa)

This hat is theirs = este sombrero es suyo (hay varios poseedores, ellos o ellas)

También tenemos que darnos cuenta de que no importa si se tiene una o más cosas, ni tampoco del género de la cosa poseida:

La casa es mía --> The house is mine

El libro es mío --> The book is mine

Las casas son mías --> The houses are mine

Los libros son míos --> The books are mine

(por tanto en estos ejemplos, mine es mío, mía, míos o mías dependiendo del contexto)

2. Reading and vocabulary

2.1. Reading: Women in Different Cultures and Stereotypes

Introduction: This reading explores the roles and stereotypes associated with women in various cultures around the world. While societies have evolved over time, certain gender stereotypes persist, influencing women's lives in unique ways across different regions. This reading will shed light on some of these stereotypes and their impact on women's lives.

Text: Women in Different Cultures and Stereotypes

Women play diverse roles in societies worldwide, shaped by cultural, historical, and societal influences. However, despite the progress towards gender equality, stereotypes continue to affect women's experiences in various cultures. Let's delve into how women are perceived and what challenges they face in different parts of the world.

Japan: In Japan, the stereotype of the "office lady" prevails. Women are often expected to be polite, docile, and dedicated to their families. Despite the emergence of strong female leaders in politics and business, traditional gender roles persist.

Saudi Arabia: In Saudi Arabia, women's lives are heavily influenced by strict interpretations of Islamic law. Women have made significant strides in recent years, gaining the right to drive and participate in the workforce, but they still face restrictions in many areas.

India: India is a country of diverse cultures, and women's roles can vary significantly from one region to another. While women have made significant strides in politics and business, deeply entrenched stereotypes related to their domestic responsibilities persist.

Sweden: Sweden is often cited as a progressive country in terms of gender equality. Stereotypes here are less rigid, and women enjoy a high degree of freedom and equal opportunities in both public and private life.

Nigeria: Nigeria is a diverse country with hundreds of ethnic groups, each with its own customs and beliefs about gender roles. In many regions, women are expected to fulfill traditional roles as wives and mothers, which can limit their access to education and economic opportunities.

Conclusion: In conclusion, stereotypes about women vary widely across cultures and can significantly affect their lives and opportunities. While progress towards gender equality has been made in many parts of the world, challenges persist, and cultural context plays a vital role in shaping women's roles and experiences. Understanding and challenging these stereotypes is a crucial step toward achieving true gender equality worldwide.

0. Introduction

En inglés, los infinitivos y los gerundios son dos formas verbales que desempeñan roles específicos en las oraciones. Comprender la diferencia entre ellos es fundamental para usar el tiempo verbal correcto en diferentes situaciones. Vamos a ver una explicación sobre cada uno:

1. Grammar: infinitivos y gerundios

1.1. Infinitivos

El infinitivo es la forma base del verbo y se forma al añadir "to" antes del verbo. Por ejemplo, "to play," "to eat," "to study" son infinitivos. Los infinitivos se utilizan en diversas situaciones:

- Para expresar intenciones o propósitos: "I want to learn Spanish" (Quiero aprender español)
- Después de ciertos verbos: Algunos verbos como "want" and "need," se siguen con un infinitivo. Por ejemplo, "She wants to swim" (Quiere nadar).
- Después de adjetivos: Los adjetivos pueden ir seguidos de infinitivo para expresar una cualidad o característica. Por ejemplo, "It's important to be honest" (Es importante ser honesto).

1.2. Gerundios

Gerundio: El gerundio es una forma verbal que termina en "-ing" y se utiliza de varias maneras:

- Como parte de los tiempos continuos: Los gerundios se utilizan en los tiempos continuos para expresar acciones en progreso. Por ejemplo, "I am reading a book" (Estoy leyendo un libro).
- Como sustantivo: Los gerundios pueden funcionar como sustantivos en una oración. Por ejemplo, "Swimming is my favorite sport" (Nadar es mi deporte favorito).
- Después de ciertos verbos: Algunos verbos se siguen de un gerundio. Por ejemplo, "She enjoys swimming" (A ella le gusta nadar).
- Después de preposiciones: Los gerundios son comunes después de preposiciones como "in," "on," "at," y "for." Por ejemplo, "I'm good at cooking" (Soy bueno cocinando).

1.3 Diferencias entre ambos

La diferencia principal entre infinitivos y gerundios radica en su uso y función en las oraciones. Los infinitivos se utilizan para expresar propósitos, intenciones, preferencias, y después de ciertos verbos y adjetivos. Los gerundios se usan para indicar acciones en progreso, como sustantivos, después de algunos verbos y preposiciones.

Es importante recordar estas diferencias para usar correctamente el tiempo verbal en inglés y construir oraciones significativas y precisas. Practicar con ejemplos y contextos diferentes te ayudará a mejorar tu comprensión y uso de infinitivos y gerundios en inglés.

1.4. Verbos Seguidos de Infinitivo

Muchos verbos en inglés van seguidos de un infinitivo. Estos verbos a menudo indican intenciones, deseos, habilidades, preferencias y necesidades. Algunos de los verbos más comunes que se utilizan con un infinitivo son:

Want (querer): "I want to learn a new language" (Quiero aprender un nuevo idioma).

Need (necesitar): "He needs to finish his homework" (Él necesita terminar su tarea).

Intend (tener la intención de): "I intend to visit my grandparents" (Tengo la intención de visitar a mis abuelos).

Can (poder/saber): "I can swim" (Sé nadar).

Plan (planear): "They plan to visit Europe next summer."

Hope (esperar): "I hope to see you soon."

Would like (gustaría): "She would like to meet you."

Promise (prometer): "He promised to help with the cleaning."

NOTA: Fíjate que CAN va seguido de un infinitivo sin el "to".

Ejemplos de Oraciones:

- "She wants to travel around the world" (Ella quiere viajar por todo el mundo).
- "They can speak multiple languages" (Ellos pueden hablar varios idiomas).

- "We need to buy groceries" (Necesitamos comprar víveres).

Recuerda que en algunas ocasiones, los verbos pueden ir seguidos de un gerundio ("-ing") en lugar de un infinitivo, lo que cambia el significado de la oración. Por ejemplo, "I like swimming" (Me gusta nadar) indica una acción en curso o un pasatiempo, mientras que "I like to swim" (Me gusta nadar) se refiere a una preferencia general. Es importante distinguir entre estas dos formas al construir oraciones en inglés. Después veremos una lista de estos verbos.

1.5. Verbos Seguidos de Gerundio

Hay una serie de verbos en inglés que se utilizan con un gerundio en lugar de un infinitivo. Estos verbos a menudo indican que una acción está en curso o describe la experiencia de realizar la acción. Aquí tienes algunos de los verbos más comunes que se utilizan con gerundio:

Enjoy (disfrutar): "I enjoy swimming" (Disfruto nadando).

Like (gustar): "She likes dancing" (A ella le gusta bailar).

Hate (odiar): "They hate waiting in line" (Odiar esperar en la fila).

Love (amar): "He loves playing the guitar" (Le encanta tocar la guitarra).

Mind (importar): "I don't mind helping you" (No me importa ayudarte).

Consider (considerar): "We considered going to the beach" (Consideramos ir a la playa).

Admit (admitir): "She admitted making a mistake" (Ella admitió haber cometido un error).

Avoid (evitar): "They avoid eating fast food."

Finish(acabar): "She finished reading the book."

Recommend (recomendar): "I recommend watching that movie."

Suggest (sugerir): "They suggested going for a walk."

Imagine(imaginar): "He can't imagine living in a big city."

Can't stand (no soportar): "I can't stand working here."

Keep (seguir): "We should keep studying to improve."

Start (comenzar): "They started working on the project."

Continue (continuar): "She continued talking with her friends."

Delay (retrasar): "They delayed making a decision."

Miss (echar de menos): "I miss spending time with my family."

Finish (acabar): "We finished painting the house."

Estos verbos, cuando se utilizan con un gerundio, indican que la acción se está llevando a cabo o se ha experimentado de alguna manera.

Ejemplos de Oraciones:

- "She enjoys singing in the choir" (A ella le gusta cantar en el coro).
- "I don't like waiting for too long" (No me gusta esperar mucho tiempo).
- "They admitted cheating on the test" (Ellos admitieron copiar en el examen).
- "He doesn't mind helping with the project" (A él no le importa ayudar con el proyecto).
- "We love traveling to new places" (Nos encanta viajar a lugares nuevos).

Recuerda que la elección entre un infinitivo y un gerundio puede cambiar el significado de una oración, por lo que es importante comprender cuándo usar cada forma correctamente. Los verbos seguidos de gerundio se utilizan para describir acciones en curso o experiencias, mientras que los verbos seguidos de infinitivo a menudo se usan para expresar intenciones o propósitos futuros.

Vamos a ver una serie de verbos que pueden ir seguidos por infinitivo o por gerundio según la ocasión y normalmente con significado diferente:

1.6. Verbos seguidos por infinitivo o por gerundio

Aquí tienes una lista de algunos verbos en inglés que pueden ir seguidos tanto de infinitivo como de gerundio, junto con las diferencias en su significado:

Start:

- Start to do something: Implica el comienzo de una acción específica. "I started to study at 7 PM."
- Start doing something: Indica el inicio de una acción continua o en progreso. "She started studying for the exam."

Begin:

- Begin to do something: Similar a "start to do something," denota el comienzo de una acción específica. "They began to work on the project."
- Begin doing something: También indica el comienzo de una acción, pero a menudo se usa para acciones continuas o habituales. "She began writing novels in her twenties."

Continue:

- Continue to do something: Sugiere que una acción continúa después de una pausa o interrupción. "He continued to work after lunch."
- Continue doing something: Indica que una acción continúa sin interrupción. "They continued playing music all night."

Like:

- Like to do something: Se utiliza para expresar preferencias o deseos personales. "I like to swim in the morning."
- Like doing something: Describe actividades que disfrutas en general. "She likes swimming in the ocean."

Love:

- Love to do something: Expresa fuertes deseos o preferencias. "They love to travel to exotic places."
- Love doing something: Indica una actividad que te encanta. "He loves cooking delicious meals."

Hate:

- Hate to do something: Sugiere una fuerte aversión o disgusto por una acción específica. "I hate to wake up early."
- Hate doing something: Expresa una acción que detestas en general. "She hates waiting in long lines."

Regret:

- Regret to do something: Implica hacer algo con remordimiento o porque es necesario. "I regret to inform you that the event is canceled."
- Regret doing something: Muestra arrepentimiento o pesar por una acción pasada. "She regrets not studying harder for the exam."

Forget:

- Forget to do something: Indica olvidar hacer algo en el futuro. "I forgot to buy groceries."

- Forget doing something: Significa no recordar una acción pasada. "She forgot visiting that museum last summer."

Remember:

- Remember to do something: Se utiliza para recordar hacer algo en el futuro. "Remember to call me later."
- Remember doing something: Indica recordar una acción pasada. "I remember seeing that movie before."

Try:

- Try to do something: Denota un esfuerzo por hacer algo en particular. "I'll try to fix the broken lamp."
- Try doing something: Implica experimentar o intentar una acción para ver si funciona. "Try turning off and on the computer."

Es fundamental prestar atención al contexto y al significado deseado para elegir entre el infinitivo o el gerundio al usar estos verbos. Cada elección afecta el sentido de la oración.

Title: Online Shopping: Convenience at Your Fingertips

In today's digital age, shopping has undergone a remarkable transformation. With the advent of the internet, online shopping has become an integral part of our lives, offering convenience, variety, and accessibility like never before.

The Online Shopping Experience:

Online shopping, also known as e-commerce, allows consumers to browse and purchase products or services over the internet. It has revolutionized the way people shop, eliminating the need for physical visits to brick-and-mortar stores. Instead, shoppers can explore a vast array of products from the comfort of their homes, offices, or even on the go through mobile devices.

Benefits of Online Shopping

- Convenience: Perhaps the most significant advantage of online shopping is convenience. Shoppers can make purchases 24/7, without the constraints of store opening hours. This flexibility caters to individuals with busy schedules.
- Variety: Online retailers offer an extensive range of products, often more diverse than what can be found in traditional stores. Shoppers can explore different brands, sizes, and colors with ease.
- Price Comparisons: Online platforms make it simple to compare prices across different sellers, allowing shoppers to find the best deals and discounts.
- Reviews and Ratings: Shoppers can read product reviews and ratings from other consumers, helping them make informed decisions about their purchases.
- Home Delivery: Many online retailers offer home delivery, eliminating the need for shoppers to travel and carry heavy bags. This feature is particularly beneficial for large or bulky items.

Challenges and Safety:

While online shopping offers numerous advantages, it is not without its challenges. Security concerns, such as identity theft and fraudulent websites, have raised caution among some consumers. To mitigate these risks, it is essential to shop from reputable websites, use secure payment methods, and safeguard personal information.

The Future of Online Shopping:

The future of online shopping looks promising. As technology continues to advance, we can expect more immersive and personalized shopping experiences. Virtual reality (VR) and augmented reality (AR) are poised to revolutionize the way we browse and try on products online, bringing an even greater sense of realism to the process.

In conclusion, online shopping has reshaped the retail landscape, providing unparalleled convenience and choice to consumers. While it's essential to exercise caution and be mindful of security, the world of online shopping holds vast potential for the future. It has truly made shopping a global experience, where the world's markets are just a click away.

3. Writing

Aquí tienes algunos consejos para escribir un texto en inglés de manera efectiva:

Planifica tu Escritura:

- Antes de comenzar a escribir, organiza tus ideas y crea un esquema o un borrador con la estructura básica de tu texto. Esto te ayudará a mantener un flujo lógico en tu escritura.

Conoce a Tu Audiencia:

- Piensa en quiénes serán los lectores de tu texto y adapta tu estilo y tono en consecuencia. El nivel de formalidad y el vocabulario pueden variar según si estás escribiendo para un público académico, profesional o general.

Usa Oraciones Claras y Concisas:

- Evita oraciones largas y complicadas. Utiliza oraciones simples y claras para expresar tus ideas. Esto hace que tu texto sea más fácil de entender.

Amplía Tu Vocabulario:

- Aprende y utiliza un amplio vocabulario. Esto enriquecerá tu escritura y te permitirá expresar tus pensamientos de manera más precisa. Lee regularmente para aumentar tu vocabulario.

Revisa y Edita:

- Después de escribir tu primer borrador, tómate el tiempo para revisarlo y corregir errores gramaticales, ortográficos y de puntuación. También verifica la coherencia y la claridad de tus ideas.

Cuida la Coherencia y la Cohesión:

- Asegúrate de que tus ideas estén conectadas de manera lógica. Usa conectores y transiciones adecuadas para guiar a tus lectores a través del texto.

Evita Repeticiones Excesivas:

- Evita repetir las mismas palabras o frases una y otra vez. Utiliza sinónimos o reformula tus oraciones para evitar la monotonía.

Sé Consciente de la Gramática:

- Familiarízate con las reglas gramaticales en inglés, como el uso correcto de tiempos verbales, concordancia de sujetos y verbos, y pronombres. Los errores gramaticales pueden dificultar la comprensión de tu texto.

Lee y Analiza Textos en Inglés:

- Lee textos en inglés de autores expertos para aprender de su estilo y estructura. Esto te ayudará a mejorar tu escritura.

Solicita Retroalimentación:

- Pide a alguien de confianza que revise tu trabajo y te brinde comentarios constructivos. La retroalimentación de otra persona puede ayudarte a identificar áreas de mejora.

Practica Constantemente:

- La práctica constante es clave para mejorar tus habilidades de escritura en inglés. Escribe de forma regular, ya sea en un diario, en un blog o en ensayos.

Lee Tu Texto en Voz Alta:

- Leer tu texto en voz alta puede ayudarte a identificar errores y mejorar la fluidez de tus oraciones.

Recuerda que la escritura en inglés, al igual que en cualquier otro idioma, mejora con la práctica y la dedicación. No temas cometer errores; son una parte natural del proceso de aprendizaje. Con el tiempo y la experiencia, verás una mejora significativa en tus habilidades de escritura en inglés.

Activity 3. Escribe un texto dando tu opinión sobre las compras por internet. Ventajas e inconvenientes. Escribe al menos 80 palabras.
